My Favorite Old-Time Poem

"I'M SURE many Reminisce EXTRA readers will recall this touching poem," writes Loise Pinkerton Fritz of Lehighton, Pennsylvania. "My own dear mother passed away just short of 99...what precious memories I have of her loving concern for her children!"

Are All the Children In?

I think oft'times as night draws nigh
Of the old farmhouse on the hill,
Of a yard all wide and blossom-starred
Where the children played at will.
And when the night at last came down,
Hushing the merry din,
Mother would look around and ask,
"Are all the children in?"

'Tis many and many a year since then,
And the house on the hill
No longer echoes to children's feet,
And the yard is still, so still.
But I see it all, the shadows creep,
And though many years have been
Since then, I can hear Mother ask,
"Are all the children in?"

I wonder if when the shadows fall
On the last short, earthly day,
When we say good-bye to the world outside,
All tired with our childish play.
When we step out into that Other Land
Where Mother so long has been,
Will we hear her ask, just as of old,
"Are all the children in?"

Over the Hill From the Poorhouse

By Will Carleton

After we published "Over the Hill to the Poor House" in our May 1998 issue, reader Dorothy H. Crowe, a descendent of Will Carleton, sent us the sequel to the poem, "Over the Hill From the Poor House." She said she wanted everyone to see that "it turned out all right for the dear old mother after all." Thanks for dropping us the poem, Dorothy.—K.T.

Over the hill to the poorhouse I went, one winter's day;
I, who was always considered a "bad stick" anyway;
I, who was always gettin' in a large assortment of tricks,
And always sure to be quoted as "the worst of the deacon's six."

Tom was a steady fellow, and saved up all he got;
But when it came to payin' his debts, he'd always rather not;
And Isaac could quote the Scriptures, an' never forgot nor slipped.
But, "Honor thy father and mother"
  was one of the verses he skipped.

An' as for Susan an' 'Becca, their hearts, as one might say,
Was good—what there was of 'em—which wasn't much anyway;
And all of our little family was good as you'll often see,
Exceptin' one poor fellow—and that 'ere one was me.

All of the rest was steady, an' nice, an' good, an' right;
All of the rest was sober—but I was mainly tight;
An' when I "borrowed" two horses, or helped to, just for fun—
If I hadn't been drunk as blazes, it never would have been done.

But when they sent me to prison, the hardest grief I felt
Was when my poor old mother beside me feebly knelt,
And cried and prayed all 'round me, till I got melted down,
And cried as I wouldn't have cried that day
  for half the horses in town.

And with my left arm round her, my right hand lifted high,
I swore henceforth to be honest, and sober live and die;
and I went and served my time out, although 'twas a bitter pill,
Which many fellows ought to take who probably never will.

And when I had served my sentence,
  I thought 'twould answer the best
To take the advice of Greeley: "Go west, young man, go west!"
And how I came to prosper there, I never could understand;
But Fortune seemed to like me, and she gave me a winning hand!

And year after year I prospered, and kept a-going ahead;
And wrote to a trusty neighbor East, to tell them I was dead.
And died a good straight fellow;
  for I knew it would please them more
Than if I had lived to 112, the chap that I was before!

But when this trusty neighbor—he wrote a line to me,
"Your mother's in the poorhouse, a-pining away," says he,
To keep dead any longer, I knew that it wouldn't be right;
So I'd a private resurrection, and started for her that night.

And when I came in the old town, my first act was to buy a snug and handsome cottage, which rather seemed to my eye
To look just like the old one: I finished it off the same;
You couldn't have told the difference—if you could,
  I wasn't to blame!

The same old clock in the corner; the fireplace, wide and high,
Sent up the smoke and cinders, and flung them toward the sky;
From garret down to cellar—'twas all the self-same thing;
'Twas good enough for the president, 'twas fine enough for a king!

Then over the hill to the poorhouse, one blustering winter day,
With two fleet nags and a cutter, I swiftly took my way;
The fleetest nags in the county, and both as black as coal,
They very much resembled the pair of horses I stole.

I hitched in front of the poorhouse, I opened the poorhouse door;
My poor old mother was on her knees, a-scrubbin' the kitchen floor.
I coughed a little on purpose; she started, in surprise,
Rose up, with a scared expression, an' looked me in the eyes.

I slowly walked up to her, an' all her troubles' trace
I saw in the lines of sorrow that marred her dear old face;
"Mother, o Mother!" I shouted, "your poorhouse contract's done;
An' you henceforth are adopted, by your resurrected son!"

She didn't faint nor holloa, but knelt down by my side,
And thanked the Lord for saving her me,
  till I broke down and cried;
But maybe our ride wasn't merry, and maybe we wasn't gay;
And maybe I didn't wrap her up that blustering winter day!

And maybe, when we had got home, and entered the cottage door,
She didn't start back kind of sudden, as if she'd seen it before!
And maybe it wasn't pleasant, our cozy evening tea,
With her quite often stoppin', and huggin' and kissin' me!

And maybe we didn't live happy, for quite a number of years!
And I gained the respect of my neighbors,
  in spite of my brothers' sneers,
And spite of my sisters' caution; who said, as I have heard,
That they never could own a brother that had been a prison bird!

But I'll bet when the great bugle rings out its cheerful notes,
And the good Lord Almighty sorts out His sheep and goats,
However my case is settled, if you are there you'll see
That my old Christian mother will stand right up for me.

WM. ROHM PASSED AWAY EARLY MONDAY MORNING

THE VETERAN WAGON MAKER OF WATERLOO

LIVED IN DEKALB 70 YEARS

And Spent Most of that Time on the Farm West of Waterloo—Leaves Eight Children—Funeral

The death of Wm. B. Rohm, which occurred at his home west of Waterloo, at about six o'clock Monday morning, was rather sudden, and it came as a shock to his family. While he had been feeble for some weeks, it was not thought that he was so near death's door.

Mr. Rohm was one of the stalwart men of the community, and was ever steadfast in what he believed to be right. The funeral will be held from the late home tomorrow forenoon at ten o'clock, and the interment will take place in the Waterloo cemetery.

William B. Rohm

Son of Simon and Mary Rohm, was born in Holmes county, Ohio, Dec. 23, 1833, died at his home west of Waterloo Ind., June 1, 1914, aged 80 years, 5 mo. and 8 days.

When ten years of age, the subject of this sketch came, with his parents, to DeKalb county and located on the farm now known as the Joseph Stahl place, west of town. During the early pioneer days Mr. Rohm endured many of the hardships necessary in building a home, and being of the sturdy class he stood the trials incident thereto and during the seventy years that he has lived in this vicinity he has won an enviable reputation as a stalwart citizen.

On July 20, 1852 he was united in marriage to Lucinda Morr. To this union was born eleven children, two of whom died in infancy, and one son died at the age of [illegible]. There are eight children who still survive. Mrs. Rohm died [illegible] On Dec. [illegible] 18[illegible] he was again united in marriage to Phebe Townley, who, with his eight children, mourn his departure.

During the earlier days in Waterloo Mr. Rohm was a wagon maker, and made many of the wagons that were used by the farmers over the county. In fact there are a few wagons in use today that were made by Mr. Rohm. This fact speaks for the honesty of the builder in using none but the best of material and giving his best efforts in whatever he undertook. This was one of the characteristics of his life.

Mr. Rohm was a charter member of the Reformed church of Waterloo, and was actively connected with the building committee that erected the church in 1871. He remained in the faith of his church, and after the church was torn down and abandoned here he always held to the faith of his early religious convictions.

Ever since the first of the year Mr. Rohm has been in failing health and had been confined to his home much of the time. However, he had been feeling quite well of late and his death came as somewhat of a surprise to his family and friends. When the end came it was as a peaceful passing away of a life that stood for all that was right and good, and the end came of a career that had been useful, and the community lost an upright man.

Rohm Family Reunion

The first reunion of the Rohm family was held Tuesday, Aug. 2, 1910, at the residence of Mr. Simon Rohm, south of Waterloo. The meeting was held in the grove, and the place was selected on account of convenience of access from all directions both by wagon road and the T. & C. Interurban. Not-withstanding the threatening weather the day turned out to be an ideal one for such a gathering.

Mr. Simon Rohm who is a grandson of the Simon Rohm who located in De-Kalb county on what is now known as the Stahl farm, in 1844, and also son of Simon Rohm who formerly lived in the brick dwelling on the Auburn road, conceived the idea that so large a family of decendants of the parent stock, should organize for the purpose of holding annual reunions, sent out invitations to all whom he thought ought to be interested and believing success was assured, with others proceeded to arrange things for the occasion and by diligent effort, tables, seats and a platform were built and so arranged with a back ground of beautiful foliage in the grove that the decorations consisting of flags, ribbons and crepe paper, were very unique and added to the good cheer everywhere in evidence. The words "Rohm Reunion" and "Welcome" were interwoven in the decorations over the platform and with the aid of nature's handiwork made an attractive background.

Near the noon hour relatives and friends to the number of nearly 200 had assembeled and proceeded to organize by the election of Mr. Joseph Stahl, as chairman.

Rev. W. L. Meese, an old time personal friend of the family, gave a very interesting talk refering to the experiences of the earlier days and by comparison with present conditions, emphasizing former hardships of the pioneers and recalling the progress and improvements, showed that the present is the best and most favorable to mankind. His address, owing to personal knowledge of earlier conditions, proved very interesting to the older members of the family present, as well as profitable to the younger element.

An especial feature of the noon hour was the magnificent dinner served by the women folks, which included an abundance of the necessities as well as luxuries to satisfy and tempt the appetite. The lingering around the festal board proved that this was a most enjoyable consideration of the reunion.

In the afternoon a fine program was carried out, consisting of recitations, duets, music, solos, and trios which was highly appreciated and had a tendency to develop the cultured talent of the Rohm family. The Campbell orchestra, of Auburn, rendered efficient service in the sweet melody of their musical selections and it was decided this orchestra should be engaged for next year's reunion.

Among those present was Mrs. Caroline Little and son, of Knoxville, Iowa. Mrs. L. is 79 years of age and a grand daughter of the Simon Rohm who was a pioneer settler of the family. He came from the east with his family across country, with a team, and arrived in 1844 on the day that the large farm barn of Mr. Husselman, on the Auburn road, was "raised" and camped with his family that night at the farm home. The relatives were very much pleased to meet Mrs. Little, who returns this week to her home in Iowa.

This reunion was an opportunity to strengthen family ties, to renew old acquaintances and listen to the voices of old and young in the happy social gathering and it is one of the essentials of life to maintain the autonomy of the family circle, and it was the sincere desire of all present that many more such happy days might be theirs to enjoy.

Simon Rohm Family

Simon Rohm Sr. migrated from Eastern Pennsylvania to western Ohio and bought a land grant piece of land dated 1840 of which the land is still in the hands of the immediate family. He sold the Ohio land and came west to settle in Indiana. He took a section of land in the so-called Fort Wayne Coldwater Pike, now known as 427 between Auburn and Waterloo Indiana.

The home was a log house that was torn down in later years and a large brick home replaced it in about 1912. This is what is called the Pioneer Farm. There was a huge barn, supposed to be the first frame barn in DeKalb County and was 100 feet long and 43 feet wide.

Simon and Mary Harsh were married and to this union were born 5 boys: John, Henry, Amos, Simon Jr., Ezra, Lydia, Mary and Lucinda.

Simon Sr. died in 1880 aged 54 years. Mary Harsh Rohm died in 1922.

Simon Jr. purchased 50 acres from his mother, Mary Harsh Rohm when he married and built his home across the road from his mother and helped care for her.

By this time, the farm had diminished in size as it was sold off by parts and parcel to about one hundred thirty and one hundred forty acres.

Ezra married and built a nice home and farm buildings on the northeast corner of the farm and helped with farming.

In 1910, the Rohm Family started the Rohm Family Reunion which was held in what was known as Mary Rohm's Grove. Many came by interurban streetcar which stopped in front of the house, a very convenient mode of transportation. These reunions continued until about 15 years ago as of 1987 or they continued until 1972.

TO THE DESCENDANTS OF ANDREW MORR,

Realizing that you are proud of the privilege of being members of a lineage that began when Andrew Morr emigrated to America from Germany and knowing that there are very few copies of the GENEALOGY OF THE MORR FAMILY available, I am submitting facts from the above mentioned book.

Sincerely yours,
ARTHUR E. MORR, President

*RE: ANDREW MORR

Early Settlement

"Andrew Morr and his wife, Catherine, were natives of Germany, but there appears to be no record as to the time when they landed in America. He was born in Germany April 30, 1727, and his wife Catherine Elizabeth, April 17, 1732. Andreas Morr lived in Shafferstown, (then called Heidelburg) village in 1758.

Mr. Morr's name first appears in the assessment list in Penn's Township, Cumberland County, Pa. in 1771. Previous to Mr. Morr's removal into the locality just mentioned, he made application for 160 acres of land in Penn's township, Cumberland, now Washington Township, Snyder County, Pa. The application was dated September 3, 1766. Two other tracts of land were purchased by Mr. Morr, the deeds of which bear the date, March 18, 1769. Andrew Morr paid 85 pounds for 231⅛ acres and 70 pounds for 100 acres, both located near Middlecreek, Cumberland County, Pa.

The whole region was in its natural state and the time was at hand when these new inhabitants commenced to level the wilderness.

It is interesting to note, Mr. Morr's first act after locating on the premises was to cut one of the tall pine trees from which a table was made at which the family partook of their daily meals.

Mr. Morr's first wife Catherine had 8 children:

1. Christina Morr
2. Anna Margaret Morr
3. Magdalene Morr
4. Philip Morr
5. Catherine Elizabeth Morr
6. Julia Morr
7. Anna Barbara Morr
8. John George Morr (the third child whose descendents account for this group assembled today."

Re: Homestead of Andrew Morr erected East of Freeburg, Pennsylvania in 1775.

*1 It may not be amiss, perhaps, in this connection to describe briefly the house he built. Its dimensions were 40 x 39 feet; height 30 feet. The ceiling of the first story was made of inch boards. The floor of the second story consisted of two inch yellow pine plank grooved and tightly fitted. Some of them were twenty inches wide. The space between the ceiling and floor was filled with mortar. This is said to have been done to prevent Indians, who often prowled around hearing the sound of footsteps on the floor. The roof was supported by a purline, the posts which held it were eight inches square. There were four rooms in each story, and the kitchen contained a wide hearth upon which the meals were cooked. The entrance from the porch into a small hall was closed by two heavy doors — an upper and a lower — like stable doors. Stones were placed between the logs in the walls of the first story, then thickly plastered with mortar to insure safety from arrows or bullets shot by Indians. This house was the rendezvous of the settlers for miles around whenever bands of Indians, bent on plunder, entered the Valley. The crevices in the upper part of the building were filled with pieces of wood, then plastered.

Andrew Morr perceived how destitute the community was without a place for religious worship, set apart two rooms on the second story of his log house for church services. These were thrown into one by means of a swinging partition which was raised to the ceiling before worship began. Here religious services were held for twelve years. It is the earliest place known in the Valley where people first congregated for the worship of God."

*2 In 1780 Mr. Morr was assessed with 479 acres of land upon which stood an oil mill, two distilleries, a grist-mill and a saw-mill."

His Religious & Public Acts

*3 "As previously reported the Andrew Morr Homestead was used as a place of worship for 12 years.

The first steps toward building a house of worship in the vicinity in which Andrew Morr had located were taken when land was patented for this purpose. Andrew Morr, Peter Straub and Casper Rouse secured a patent for 42 acres in Penn's township, Northumberland county, Pa., now located 1 mile north of Freeburg, Pa., as early as April 12, 1774. The church was called the Zion's, or Morr's church. In the Morr church the members worshiped for 28 years.

In 1795, the members of the Lutheran and Reformed congregations, who worshiped in the Morr (Zion's) church, received a communion service from Andrew Morr and his wife Catherine Elizabeth, consisting of a tankard and cup. The tankard and cup were in use at each successive communion service up to 1880, covering a period of 85 years. Upon the tankard there is a German inscription. The English translation reads: "To the praise of God, given as a gift of charity from Andrew Morr in the Evangelical Lutheran-Zion's Church in Penn's Township, Northumberland Co., the 29th of July, Anno Domini, 1795."

It was customary for some time after the erection of Northumberland county, which took place March 27, 1772, to appoint a committee of three persons from each of the 11 districts known as a "Committee of Safety." Andrew was one who represented Penn's township. At the April term of court, 1795, when a petition of the citizens of Penn's township was presented for the formation of a new township out of a portion of Penn's, Andrew Morr was appointed one of the viewers. Their report was confirmed at the April Courts, 1796.

Mr. Morr departed this life in 1801, in the 75th year of his age; his wife preceeded him to the spirit world a few years previous. Both are buried in the Morr cemetery. Their resting place is unmarked.

God looked around His garden, and He found an empty place. He then looked down upon this earth, and saw your tired face. He put His arms around you, and lifted you to rest; God's garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best. He knew that you were suffering, He knew you were in pain, He knew that you would never get well on earth again. So He closed your weary eyelids, and whispered
"Peace be thine." It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home.

Biography of Ezra Rohm, pages 1003/1004. History of DeKalb County, Indiana; B. F. Bowen & Company, Inc., Indianapolis, 1914.

It is not an easy task to describe adequately a man who has led an eminently active and busy life, and who has attained a position of relative distinction in the community with which his interests are allied. But biography finds its most perfect justification, nevertheless, in the tracing and recording of such a life history. It is, then, with a full appreciation of all that is demanded and of the painstaking scrutiny that must be accorded each statement, and yet with a feeling of satisfaction, that the writer essays the task of touching briefly upon the details of such a record as has been that of the honored subject of this sketch whose eminently honored and successful career now comes under review. Ezra Rohm, one of the successful farmers and respected citizens of Grant township, was born on July 2, 1873, about one and one-half miles north of Waterloo, this county, and is a son of Simon and Mary (Harsh) Rohm, who was mentioned elsewhere in this work. When Ezra Rohm was about five years old the family moved to the present location, which is about half way between Auburn and Waterloo, and there he was reared. In about 1896 he bought a part of the old home farm, and to the operation of this tract he has applied his energies continuously since with eminent success, and has earned a high reputation because of his up-to-date methods and untiring energy. He has one of the best improved farms in this locality, the substantial and attractive residence, commodious and well-arranged barns, well-kept fences and the general appearance of the fields evidencing him to be a man of good ideas and sound judgement. He carries on a general line of farming, raising all the crops common to this locality and has met with a gratifying degree of success as a result of his efforts. In 1891 Mr. Rohm married Amelia Walker, daughter of George W. and Caroline (Neidig) Walker, of Feagler's Corners, Richland township, where her parents now reside. She was born in Stark county, Ohio. And was about nine years of age when the family removed to this county. To Mr. and Mrs. Rohm have been born seven children, of whom Iola Pearl died in infancy. Those living are as follows: Edward M., born March 28, 1892, married Hazel Husselman, and they have a daughter, Erma May; Edward Rohm is operating the Al St. Clair farm; Lillie M. Rohm is the wife of Clyde Osborne, and lives in Auburn; Luella is the wife of Merritt Sockrider, who is a postal telegraph operator, and they have a daughter, Myrtle Merrill; Elza Frank, born August 21, 1898; Mildred Catherine, born June 15, 1905, and Myrtle Caroline, born January 16, 1909. The family moved in the best social circles of the community in which they resides and are held in high esteem by all who know them. Mr. Rohm, though quiet and unostentatious in his life, has been a definite factor in the life of the community, for he has given his support at all times to such movements as promise to be for the material, social, educational or moral advancement of the people, and as a result of his upright life and sturdy industry he has gained an enviable standing among his fellow citizens.

Descendants of James Latson

Generation No. 1

1. James^{1} Latson was born Abt. 1807 in Delaware. He married Eunice. She was born Abt. 1817 in NY.

Children of James Latson and Eunice are:

2 i. George^{2} Latson, born Abt. 1835 in NY.

Notes for George Latson:
From the 1850 Whitley County census. James Latson 43, Eunice 33, George 15, Abzina 13, Charles 10, Wesley 7, Melissa 5, Alonzo 4, Asenita? 1, and Frances E. 1/12. James was from Delaware, Eunice from NY. There is a tear in the next spot but I "think" it is ditto (so MAYBE George, Abzina, Charles, Wesley, Melissa were born in NY?) And then it shows Alonzo being born in IN along with the two younger siblings.

3 ii. Abzina Latson, born Abt. 1837.
4 iii. Charles Latson, born Abt. 1840.
5 iv. Wesley Latson, born Abt. 1843.
6 v. Melissa Latson, born Abt. 1845.
7 vi. Asenarta Latson, born Abt. 1849.

+ 9 viii. Alonzo Latson, born November 03, 1845 in Scott Township, Whitley County, IN; died November 20, 1912 in Union Twp., DeKalb County, IN.

Generation No. 2

9. Alonzo^{2} Latson (James^{1}) was born November 03, 1845 in Scott Township, Whitley County, IN, and died November 20, 1912 in Union Twp., DeKalb County, IN. He married (1) Lovina Pew/Pugh. She was born April 25, 1846, and died October 10, 1883. He married (2) Aveline Treesh.

Notes for Alonzo Latson:
Information from James Ray's obit. He lived and was buried in Kendallville.

Nov. 20, 1912 ALONZO LATSON IS DEAD AS RESULT OF PLUNGE FROM BARN Kendallville Man, Aged Sixty-Eight, Civil War Veteran and Well Known Carpenter Meets Tragic Death Near Auburn Falling from the roof of a barn on the farm of Jack Long, one and one-fourth miles from Auburn, at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, Alonzo Latson, a carpenter, aged 68 years, of Kendallville, and father of Virgil Latson and Abbie Pierce, So. Main, and Mrs. Edward Kerlin of Mitchell street, received injuries from which he died an hour later. At the time of the fatal accident Mr. Latson was working on a hip roof, which has a deep pitch. In some manner the seat he occupied slipped and he was precipitated to the ground, thirty-five feet below, fellow employees hurried to his assistance and found him in an unconscious condition. The victim never rallied and expired about 8:30 o'clock. The victim alighted within a foot of a straw stack, which undoubtedly would have saved his life had he been that distance from where he was working when he fell. Although Mr. Latson had always called Kendallville his home, he had spent the past ten years working for W. R.

Thomas, of Auburn, who is a carpenter contractor. Mr. Latson while in this city, following the death of his wife several years ago, made his residence with his daughter, Mrs. Kerlin. He was a Civil war veteran. He was regarded as a workman of exceptional ability, one who could always be depended upon and one who regarded the interests of his employer as his own. The children of the decedent left for Auburn on the traction train car departing from the Kendallville station at ? a.m. The remains were brought to Kendallville Wednesday afternoon and were taken to the residence of E. S. Kerlin on East Mitchell street. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Nov. 21, 1912, Kendallville Paper, FUNERAL TO BE HELD SATURDAY Remains of Late Alonzo Latson Brought Here From Auburn "The funeral arrangements for Alonzo Latson, the Kendallville man who died Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock as a result of injuries sustained in a fall from a barn on the Jack Long far, west of Auburn, have not been fully been completed and the exact time for holding the services can not be set until the arrival of a brother of the decedent. James Latson, who is now on his way from Levi, New Mexico. Immediately following the death of Alonzo Latson a telegram was sent to James Latson and he replied to the effect that he would leave for Kendallville Wednesday noon. It is expected that he will arrive here Friday night, in which event brief services will be conducted Saturday morning at the home of Edward Kerlin on East Mitchell street. Mrs. Kerlin is a daughter of the decedent. The body will be shipped to Fremont for interment, being taken by traction line to Auburn Junction and then over the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. The remains arrived in Kendallville Wednesday evening at 5:30 over the Toledo & Chicago traction road. Mr. Latson was born Nov. 3, 1845, in Scott township, Whitley county. After the death of his first wife he married Aveline Treesh and they lived near Sixteen, Richland Township, Dekalb County. After the death of his second wife he made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Kerlin. According to Contractor W. R. Thomas, of Auburn, by whom Mr. Latson was employed, the fatal fall was due to Mr. Latson's roofing stool tipping with him while on the steep hip roof of the Jack Long barn. The victim was taken to the Long home and Dr. Rock was called, but internal injuries made all efforts to save his life futile. Apparently not a bone was broken, but a hemorrhage filled the lungs."

Nov. 23, 1912, Kendallville Paper, "FUNERAL OF ALONZO LATSON HELD SATURDAY The funeral of Alonzo Latson was held Saturday morning from the residence of his daughter on East Mitchell street at nine o'clock. Rev. Millard Pell of the Methodist Episcopal church officiated. Many of the relatives and friends of the deceased were present. The remains were taken to Fremont accompanied by a number of the relatives. The trip from this city to Auburn was made over the T & C. 1: car leaving this city at 10:15 o'clock."

+ 13 iv. James Ray Latson, born June 22, 1884; died April 03, 1957 in DeKalb County, IN.

Generation No. 3

13. James Ray^3 Latson (Alonzo^2, James^1) was born June 22, 1884, and died April 03, 1957 in DeKalb County, IN. He married Maude S. Graham November 29, 1906, daughter of James Graham and Emily Lawrence. She was born December 20, 1886 in DeKalb County, IN, and died May 31, 1968 in DeKalb County, IN.

Notes for James Ray Latson:
From a Vanguard published by John Martin Smith. It is from a story told by Wilma Wilson. She is talking about when eight DeKalb County Families settled in New Mexico near Levy, and also when they returned. By 1908 land in DeKalb Co. was increasing in value and difficult to get. The government advertised free land in New Mexico if they could live on it for 5 years. "In late 1908, Mr. & Mrs. James Latson and their little daughter Wilma joined their family in New Mexico and entered land adjacent to the Will Grahams. Mrs. Latson (Maude) was the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. James Graham and the sister of Will and Lotta Graham....James Latson worked as a cowboy and sheepherder at a mountain ranch. The women stayed at home to care for the children, garden, crops, and cattle while the men worked. At first they were afraid to stay alone in such a desolate place but they helped each other and found the Mexican natives accommodating when they were needed. Their diet was somewhat different than what they were used to in Indiana. The staple food was Mexican beans. Bread, chicken, milk, and eggs were plentiful.....Taken for granted in DeKalb County, water was a real problem in New Mexico. It had to be purchased for ten cents a barrel from a Mexican family that lived about two miles away and were fortunate to have a well.....The Latsons returned to DeKalb county in 1913 and spent the remainder of their lives here. James Latson died in 1957 and Maude Latson died in 1968. Wilma Latson is now Aubrey Wilson and resides in Auburn. Margaret Latson is now Mrs. Carl Haynes and resides in Auburn also. A third daughter, Mary Latson Zengenfus, was born after the family returned to DeKalb County. In 1950 Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Wilson took Mr. & Mrs. James Latson to their former farm in New Mexico. Nothing remained other than the bare prairie. Levy was nonexistent. The closest town, Colmar, was nothing more than a post office and general store. They were surprised to discover, however, that the general store was run by the same man from whom they had purchased groceries in 1913!"

James Latson, Age 76, Dies at Home Auburn Resident for 30 Years and Former County Highway Employee, Succumbs after Series of Strokes James R. Latson, a former employee of the DeKalb county highway department and a resident of Auburn for 30 years, died about 12:50 p.m. Wednesday at his home, 317 West Eleventh Street, Auburn. The body was removed to the Dilgard & Cline funeral home in Auburn for burial preparations. Funeral arrangements are incomplete. In failing health for the past several months, Mr. Latson had suffered a series of strokes. He was 76. A native of the Flint community in Steuben county, he was born Sept. 7, 1880, son of the late Alonzo Latson and Lavina Pugh Latson. On Nov. 29, 1906, he married Maude Graham. The couple observed their 50th wedding anniversary last Nov. 29. For many years, Mr. Latson was an employee of the county highway department. For three years, until he retired in 1953, he had been employed at the Ball Brass & Aluminum Foundry, Inc., in Auburn. Mr. Latson was a member of the St. Mark's Lutheran church in Auburn and was active in the Men's Fellowship class at the church. He was also a member of the I.O.O.F. lodge in Auburn. Surviving, besides the widow, are three daughters, Mrs. Aubrey Wilson of 317 West Fifteenth street, Auburn; Mrs. Carl H. Haynes, 717 Ensley Avenue, Auburn and Mrs. Garthard Zegenfus, 1320 South Van Buren street, Auburn; a sister, Mrs. Abbie Pierce, Washington D. C., seven grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren. John George Rohm and his first wife Ella M. Ritter. They were united in marriage October 9, 1889. Below is the wedding announcement of their marriage in the paper.

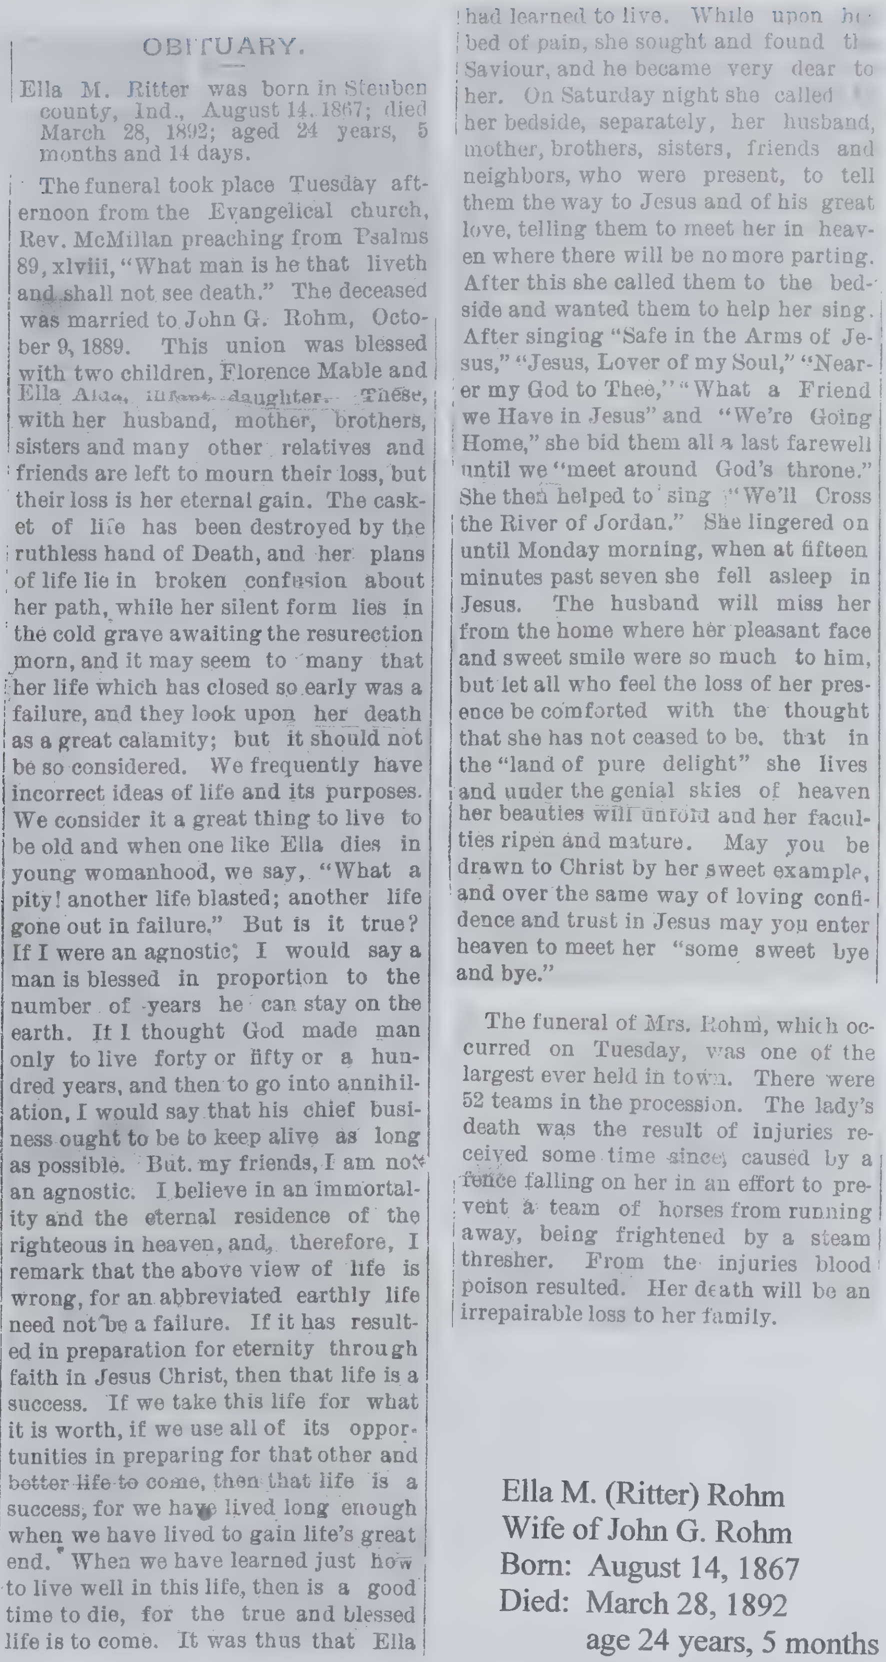
MY DAD

Married at the residence of the groom's parents in DeKalb county, by Rev. W. O. Butler, Oct. 9th, 1889, John G. Rohm to Miss Ella Ritter, of Steuben county. The bride bewitched all the company by her taste and elegance of dress and gracefulness. John G. is to be congratulated. An elegant supper was served by the groom's mother.



OBITUARY.

Ella M. Ritter was born in Steuben county, Ind., August 14, 1867; died March 28, 1892; aged 24 years, 5 months and 14 days.

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon from the Evangelical church, Rev. McMillan preaching from Psalms 89, xlviii, "What man is he that liveth and shall not see death." The deceased was married to John G. Rohm, October 9, 1889. This union was blessed with two children, Florence Mable and Ella Alda, infant daughter. These, with her husband, mother, brothers, sisters and many other relatives and friends are left to mourn their loss, but their loss is her eternal gain. The casket of life has been destroyed by the ruthless hand of Death, and her plans of life lie in broken confusion about her path, while her silent form lies in the cold grave awaiting the resurection morn, and it may seem to many that her life which has closed so early was a failure, and they look upon her death as a great calamity; but it should not be so considered. We frequently have incorrect ideas of life and its purposes. We consider it a great thing to live to be old and when one like Ella dies in young womanhood, we say, "What a pity! another life blasted; another life gone out in failure." But is it true? If I were an agnostic, I would say a man is blessed in proportion to the number of years he can stay on the earth. If I thought God made man only to live forty or fifty or a hundred years, and then to go into annihilation, I would say that his chief business ought to be to keep alive as long as possible. But my friends, I am not an agnostic. I believe in an immortality and the eternal residence of the righteous in heaven, and, therefore, I remark that the above view of life is wrong, for an abbreviated earthly life need not be a failure. If it has resulted in preparation for eternity through faith in Jesus Christ, then that life is a success. If we take this life for what it is worth, if we use all of its opportunities in preparing for that other and better life to come, then that life is a success, for we have lived long enough when we have lived to gain life's great end. When we have learned just how to live well in this life, then is a good time to die, for the true and blessed life is to come. It was thus that Ella had learned to live. While upon h bed of pain, she sought and found th Saviour, and he became very dear to her. On Saturday night she called her bedside, separately, her husband, mother, brothers, sisters, friends and neighbors, who were present, to tell them the way to Jesus and of his great love, telling them to meet her in heaven where there will be no more parting. After this she called them to the bedside and wanted them to help her sing. After singing "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Jesus, Lover of my Soul," "Nearer my God to Thee," "What a Friend we Have in Jesus" and "We're Going Home," she bid them all a last farewell until we "meet around God's throne." She then helped to sing "We'll Cross the River of Jordan." She lingered on until Monday morning, when at fifteen minutes past seven she fell asleep in Jesus. The husband will miss her from the home where her pleasant face and sweet smile were so much to him, but let all who feel the loss of her presence be comforted with the thought that she has not ceased to be, that in the "land of pure delight" she lives and under the genial skies of heaven her beauties will unfold and her faculties ripen and mature. May you be drawn to Christ by her sweet example, and over the same way of loving confidence and trust in Jesus may you enter heaven to meet her "some sweet bye and bye."

The funeral of Mrs. Rohm, which occurred on Tuesday, was one of the largest ever held in town. There were 52 teams in the procession. The lady's death was the result of injuries received some time since, caused by a fence falling on her in an effort to prevent a team of horses from running away, being frightened by a steam thresher. From the injuries blood poison resulted. Her death will be an irrepairable loss to her family.

The
John George Rohm
and
Edith Mae Latson Rohm
home
Waterloo, Indiana

The Rohm farm was West of Waterloo Indiana, following the railroad tracks, past the depot and to the end of the road. The house was white trimmed in dark green. They had a barn and other outbuildings. The home burned down in 1988.

The girls of the household, Amy and Irene helped their mother Edith Mae Latson Rohm run the household. The Rohm family butchered every year with the help of John G. Rohm's brother, Daniel Frederick Rohm. The sons of Daniel Rohm, Russell " Tim" Ernest and Clyde Rohm also helped. They also put up meat for the winter, rendering lard for the kitchen and smoking delicious hams.

School days and farming at the John G. Rohm household

Owen, LeRoy and Ford Rohm went to school everyday. They got to school by walking into town through all kinds of weather. Sometimes they even "hopped" the train to and from school when fresh snow had fallen. My father Ford Rohm said "It was dangerous, but fun".

As time passed, Owen and Ford were unable to finish school. They both had attended school as far as the 8th grade. They had to stay home and help their dad on the farm.

LeRoy was the only one who was able to attend school and graduate from Waterloo High School, Waterloo Indiana. I am not sure why he was allowed to finish school and Owen and Ford had to help their dad.

Owen stayed on the farm and helped until he died in 1933. Ford helped on the farm for a while, then got a job at a garage in Waterloo Indiana. He then worked for a company who sold chickens. He would ride the train with the shipment of chickens to Chicago, where he sold them.

Ford then worked for the Nehi soda pop company. He then worked for the Metropolitan Life Insurance come as an insurance agent for35 years. He worked for Metropolitan until he retired.

My Great Uncle Dan had a woods on his farm. My dad, mother, brother and I used to go mushroom hunting in the woods in the spring. We would quite a few sponge mushrooms when we would go.
When they built Intestate 69, half of Great Uncle Dan's woods is under the pavement. I keep hoping the mushrooms just might come up through the concrete!!

MORTUARY RECORD.

Irene, daughter of John and Edith Rohm, was born near Waterloo, Indiana, December 30, 1896 and died at her home, April 30, 1914, aged 18 years, four months.

Irene had never been very strong, and for the last few months, she was not so well, but on account of her uncomplaining disposition her friends were kept from knowing how bad she really was.

She attended school in Waterloo, and made many friends there. She was not a member of any church but attended the United Brethern whenever it was possible for her to do so.

She has left a vacant place which cannot be filled but we must remember while we are mourning our loss she is enjoying the reward of everlasting life and the promise of the Savior. We now can feel that we have some interest in heaven because Irene is there. "I am the Good Shepherd and know my sheep; and am known of mine.

She leaves to mourn their loss a father, mother, twin sister, two half-sisters, one half-brother, three brothers, and a host of relatives and friends.

"Her loving heart is now at rest;
God took her home when he thought best."

The funeral was held at the house, Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. in charge of Rev. Overmeyer.

My help cometh from the Lord,

The sun shall not smite thee by day,

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil:

And that's one of the healthiest Big-Game lists that has come our way in some time. Ditto for the individual producers of large policies, as recorded for the week of the 15th over in No. 1 column. Ditto for the A&H results of the same week.

Gentlemen, there's something in the air—and we don't mean spring!

Districts Win Hunt Banners

Emphasizing their leadership in Big-Game Ordinary for the first two months of 1937, three Central Districts won possession of both the State and Territorial Association banners as of March 1st.

Marion (Ind.) pride of Manager Claxon; Elmwood Place, captained by Manager Wiles; and the Charleston staff of Manager Milligan, were the aggregations which underscored their accomplishment in large-case production with double victories.

Other Districts Shine

Other Big-Game banner winners were: Covington, which captured the Kentucky State pennant; Mansfield, victor in the Central Ohio Managers Association; Sandusky, standout in the Northern Ohio Association; Rich-

Comfort

The Power who pities man has shown
  A blessing for the eyes that weep.

The light of smiles shall fill again
  The lids that overflow with tears;
And weary hours of woe and pain
  Are promises of happier years.

There is a day of sunny rest
  For every dark and troubled night;
And grief may bide an evening guest,
  But joy shall come with early light.

For God hath marked each sorrowing day,
  And numbered every secret tear,
And Heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
  For all His children suffer here.

My Favorite Old-Time Poem

"I'M IN my late 70s and recall learning this poem in school," writes Libbie Musil of Burson, California. "I hope other readers will enjoy and remember it, too."

When the Frost Is on the Punkin

When the frost is on the punkin
and the fodder's in the shock,
And you hear the kyouck and gobble
of the struttin' turkey-cock,
And the clackin' of the guineys, and
the cluckin' of the hens,
And the rooster's hallylooyer as he
tiptoes on the fence;
O, it's then's the times a feller is a-feelin' at his best,
With the risin' sun to greet him from
a night of peaceful rest,
As he leaves the house, bareheaded,
and goes out to feed the stock,
When the frost is on the punkin and
the fodder's in the shock.

They's something kindo' harty-like about the atmusfere
When the heat of summer's over and the coolin' fall is here—
Of course we miss the flowers, and the blossoms on the trees,
And the mumble of the hummin'-birds
and buzzin' of the bees;
But the air's so appetizin'; and the landscape through the haze
Of a crisp and sunny morning of the airly autumn days
Is a pictur' that no painter has the colorin' to mock—
When the frost is on the punkin and
the fodder's in the shock.

The husky, rusty russel of the tossels
of the corn,
And the raspin' of the tangled leaves,
as golden as the morn;
The stubble in the furries—kindo'
lonesome-like, but still
A-preachin' sermuns to us of the barns
they growed to fill;
The strawstack in the medder, and the
reaper in the shed;
The hosses in theyr stalls below—the clover overhead!
O, it sets my hart a-clickin' like the
tickin' of a clock,
When the frost is on the punkin and
the fodder's in the shock.

Then your apples all is gethered, and the ones a feller keeps
Is poured around the celler-floor in red and yeller heaps;
And your cider-makin' 's over, and your wimmen-folks is through
With their mince and apple-butter,
and theyr souse and saussage, too!
I don't know how to tell it—but ef sich a thing could be
As the Angels wantin' boardin', and they'd call around on me—
I'd want to 'commodate 'em—all the whole-indurin' flock—
When the frost is on the punkin and
the fodder's in the shock!

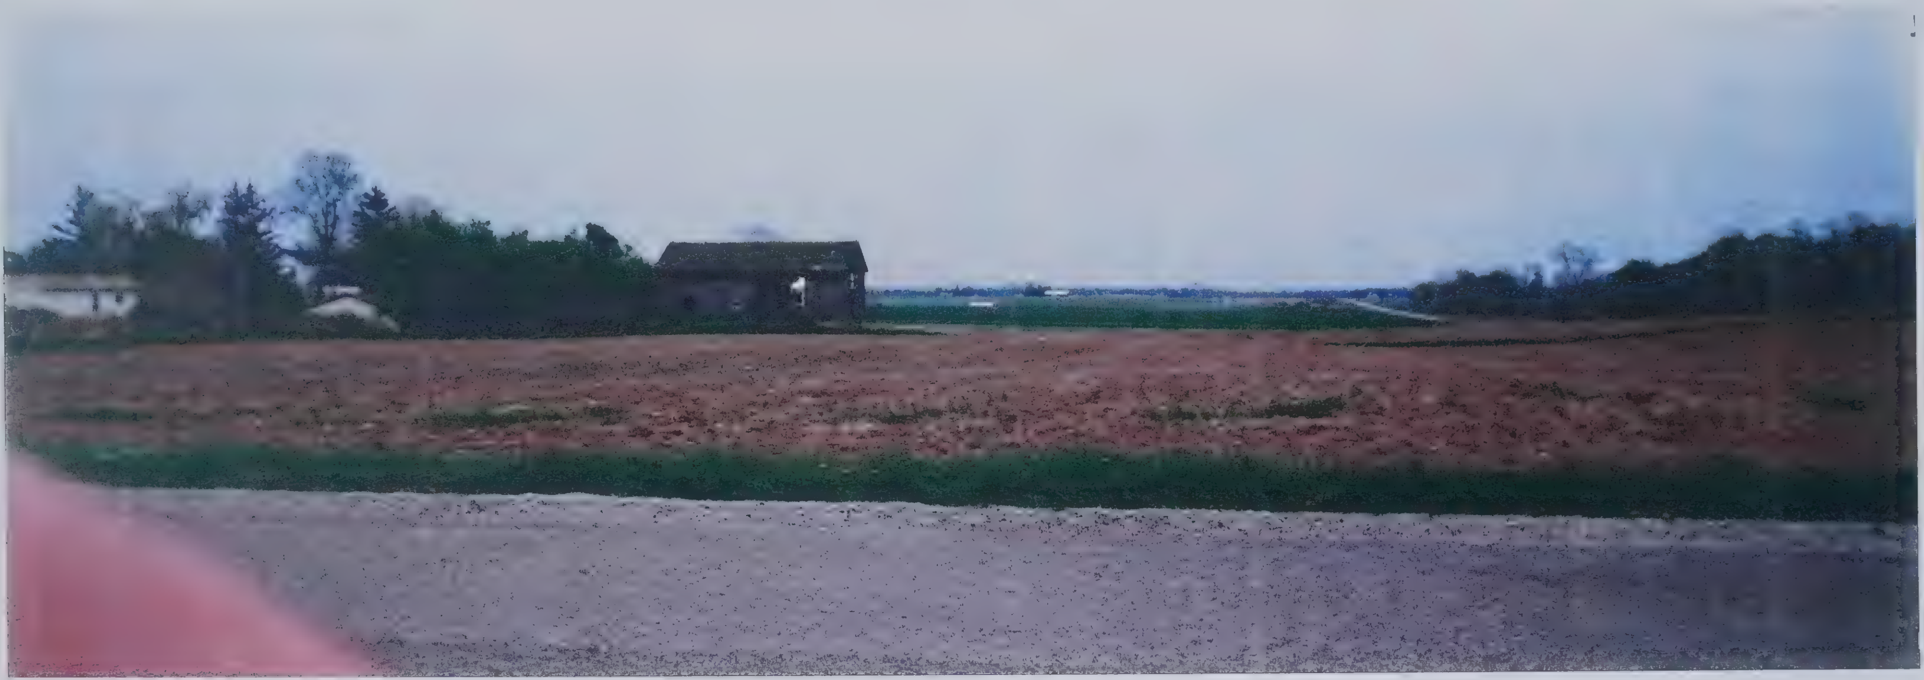
Jerry and Joyce Rohm Springer purchased my dad's Oldsmobile from my mother Bessie M. Rohm. It was the first time we ever owned two cars!



This is the barn that my Great Grandfather William B. Rohm built. It was located on the Auburn Ashley Road on the east side of the road. I am not sure when the barn was built.

In 1996, my husband Jerry Springer took these pictures of the barn for me. Jerry took them just in time as the barn was razed the next day after Jerry took the pictures. On the upper right, you can see a strip of road going by my Great Uncle Dan's woods. The road goes over Interstate 69. Just after you get across "69" my parents would park and we would all walk over a cornfield to the woods. The barn is in the way to see what is left of Great Uncle Dan's woods. It was great family fun so long ago. The mushrooms were delicious!

Notes for SIMON ROHM:

Simon Rohm Sr. was a soldier for nine years in the Napoleonic wars, and was married in the old country to Mary Ann Miller. He was considered well-to-do in his native land, owning fifteen acres of land and two cows, but he sold all he had and brought his wife and children, Frederick, Elizabeth, Simon Jr., Valentine and Caroline, to America, their other children having died in Germany. Although considered well-to-do, he spent all he had in making the trip to America and was five dollars in debt on his arrival here. In 1833 the family located in Holmes county, Ohio, where were born other children, William B., Henry C., Joseph E., and Christian. In 1845 the family moved to western Indiana, where Simon had leased land for nine years. Simon Jr. being the largest and most robust son at home, and his father being too old to farm alone, refused to stay and farm the place because of the worthless character of the soil, consequently they packed up their effects and came to Dekalb County, Indiana, locating on a farm two and one-half miles southwest of Waterloo, known as the Joseph Stahl Place. This information can be found in the Dekalb County, History pages 907 and 908.
